Right of attendance

The General Meeting of Shareholders may be attended by all shareholders registered as such in the Company's relevant book-entry ledger at least five days prior to the date of the Meeting, as evidenced by producing the relevant entitlement certificate or attendance card delivered by the Company or by any company in charge of keeping the book-entry ledger, or by any other means admitted by current legislation. Registration of attendance cards shall commence two hours before the scheduled time of the Meeting.

Access to the room in which the Ordinary General Meeting is to be held may be limited to the number of attendants specified by the regulations on public health emergency that may be in force on the date of the Meeting. To this end, access shall be provided on a first come, first served basis. In any event, it will be possible to follow the Meeting from adjoining rooms, and all means necessary shall be put in place to transmit relevant information to the General Meeting.

In any event, the Board of Directors recommends shareholders to exercise their rights prior to the date of the Meeting, by means of the relevant proxies and remote voting systems put at their disposal under the terms of this notice of meeting.

Expected holding of the Meeting

The Board of Directors informs shareholders that, given the Company's shareholding structure, the Meeting is expected to be held on first call, i.e. on 29 June 2021.

Representation right

Any shareholder having the right to attend General Meetings may be represented thereat by another person, whether a shareholder or not, in such manner and under such conditions as are set forth in the Joint Stock Companies Act, in section 16 of the By-laws and in section 7 of the General Meeting Regulations.

Proxies must be in writing and specific for each General Meeting. The conditions and scope thereof are set forth in the Joint Stock Companies Act. In any event, the number of shares represented shall be taken into account when calculating the quorum for a Meeting. Proxies may always be revoked. The proxy shall be deemed revoked if the shareholder who appointed the proxy attends the Meeting.

When voting, the proxy holder is required to follow the instructions, if any, given by the shareholder he/she represents. Proxies may represent more than one shareholder, and there is no maximum limit to the number of shareholders they may represent. In the event that several shareholders are represented by the same proxy, the latter may issue different votes in line with the instructions given to him/her by each shareholder.

In the event of doubt regarding the beneficiary or the scope of the representation, the proxy is deemed: (i) to be granted to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors; (ii) to cover all the items included in the agenda, as stated in the notice of meeting; (iii) to vote for the approval of all proposals made by the Board of Directors in connection with the items included in the agenda, as stated in the notice of meeting; and (iv) to cover any items not included in the agenda, as stated in the notice of meeting, which may be dealt with at the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with law, in respect of which the proxy shall cast his/her vote as he/she deems right having regard to the interests of the shareholder who appointed the proxy within the framework of the Company's interests.

The granting of proxy shall be specified on the attendance card or by means of a letter, which in any event must carry hand-written signature, notwithstanding the provisions below regarding the delegation of proxies by means of remote communication systems prior to the General Meeting being held. The form of attendance card, as adapted to this General Meeting of Shareholders, is available on the Company's corporate website (www.greenergy.eu).

The guarantees the Board of Directors deems appropriate in ensuring the authenticity and identification of the shareholder exercising, before the meeting is held, his/her voting rights by electronic means are the qualified electronic signature and the advanced electronic signature, as set forth in Act 6/2020, provided that they are based on (i) the Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), which depends on the Fábrica Nacional de la Moneda y Timbre (Spanish Mint), if it has not been revoked, or on (ii) the qualified electronic certificate incorporated into the electronic identity card issued in accordance with Royal Decree 1553/2005, of 23 December, regulating the delivery of identity cards and their electronic signature certificates.

Votes cast by electronic means shall be null and void:

- (a) In the event of subsequent express revocation notified by the same means used to issue the same and within the timeline established therefor.
- (b) If the shareholder that voted by electronic means attends the meeting.

Personal data protection

Any personal data supplied by shareholders to the Company in connection with the exercise of their attendance, representation and voting rights at General Meetings, or to be supplied by financial institutions and securities agencies and companies with which their shares are deposited, through the entity that is legally entitled to keep the book-entry ledger, as well as any audiovisual recording of the entire General Meeting, so that it may be easily followed and adequately publicised, shall be processed with the purpose of managing the development, lawfulness and monitoring of the shareholding relationship existing between the Company and its shareholders, as well as with the purpose of submitting any information requested by shareholders, as the case may be. In addition, shareholders are informed that their data shall be processed with the purposes stated above. Shareholders are entitled to exercise their rights of access, erasure, rectification, portability, purpose limitation and opposition, as well as their right to withdraw their consent, in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation and other provisions in force, by sending a letter (including a photocopy of the data subject's identity card for identification purposes) to Grenergy Renovables, S.A. - Calle Rafael Botí 26, Madrid.

The Company, acting as data controller, states that it has adopted all legally-required security measures at its facilities, systems and files, thus guaranteeing the confidentiality of the relevant personal data, except in the event that personal data must be disclosed by law or in accordance with a court or governmental order.

Involvement of a notary at the General Meeting

The Board of Directors has agreed to have a notary attend the Meeting in order to draw up the minutes thereof.

Supplement to the notice of meeting and presentation of proposals

Shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may request the publication of a supplement to the notice of General Meeting of Shareholders, including one or more items on its agenda, provided that the new items are accompanied by a justification or, if appropriate, by a justified resolution proposal.

This shareholders' right may be exercised by sending a written notice that must be received at the registered office within five days of the date of publication of the notice of meeting. The supplement to the notice of meeting must be published at least fifteen days before the scheduled date of the General Meeting.

Shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may, within five days of publication of the notice of meeting, present substantiated resolution proposals concerning issues already included or to be included in the agenda. As they are received, the Company shall ensure that these proposals are notified to the remaining shareholders, together with any supporting documentation, if deemed appropriate, and the Company shall ensure publication thereof on its corporate website during the period established by the legal regulations in force.

General information

In order to guarantee compliance with section 539 of the Joint Stock Companies Act, a Shareholders' Electronic Forum has been set up on the Company's website. The rules governing its operation and the forms that must be filled out to participate therein are available on the Company's website.

For any issue concerning the General Meeting not dealt with in this notice, shareholders may review the General Meeting regulations, which are available on the Company's website.

Madrid, 26 May 2021.

Florentino Vivancos Gasset
The Secretary of the Board of Directors
