Explain the significant variations during the exercise:

Explain the significant variations

On 1 January 2022 the number of treasury shares was 580,588 shares, so there has been a positive variation of 30,560. The variation corresponds to different reasons:

- Purchases and sales under the Company's liquidity contract (with JB Capital Markets SVB S.A.) and in accordance with its terms and conditions.
- Transfer of shares to employees arising from the implementation of the 2015-2019 Share Option Plan or awards to non-executive directors as a consequence of the remuneration policy.
- Acquisition of shares under the share buy-back programme for the coverage of employee incentive plans communicated on 24 November 2022. The total number of shares acquired in this way during the year was 41,075 shares.

A.10. Give details of the conditions and term of the existing mandate from the shareholders' meeting to the board of directors to issue, buy back or transfer own shares:

At the date of issue of this report, the authorisation granted by the General Meeting of Shareholders on 29 June 2021 by virtue of which the Board of Directors is empowered to acquire treasury shares is still in force. The literal wording of the resolution adopted by the aforementioned General Meeting, under point eight of the Agenda, is transcribed below:

"...To authorise the derivative acquisition of shares in GREENERGY RENOVABLES, S.A. by the Company itself, or by companies in its group, under the provisions of articles 146 and concordant articles of the Capital Companies Act, in compliance with the requirements and limitations established in the legislation in force at any given time, all in the following terms:

- Methods of acquisition: Acquisitions may be made directly by the Company or indirectly through companies in its group, and may be formalised, on one or more occasions, by purchase and sale, exchange or any other legal transaction valid in law.
- Maximum number of shares to be acquired: The nominal value of the shares to be acquired, added, where appropriate, to those already held, directly or indirectly, shall not exceed the maximum percentage legally permitted from time to time.
- Maximum and minimum countervalue: The acquisition price per share shall be at least the nominal value and at most EUR 50 per share or, if higher, the price at which the shares were trading on a regulated securities market on the date of acquisition.
- Duration of the authorisation: This authorisation is granted for a term of five years. Likewise, and for the purposes of the provisions of the second paragraph of letter a) of article 146.1 of the Capital Companies Act, it is expressly stated for the record that express authorisation is granted for the acquisition of shares in the Company by any of its subsidiaries, on the same terms as those referred to above. The authorisation also includes the acquisition of shares which, if applicable, are to be delivered directly to the employees or directors of the Company or companies in its group, or as a result of the exercise of option rights held by them.

This authorisation supersedes the authorisation granted by the General Meeting of the Company on 17 June 2019, in the unused part."

With regard to the power to issue shares, the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 29 June 2021 authorised the Board of Directors, in accordance with the provisions of Article 297.1b) of the Capital Companies Act, to increase the share capital, by means of cash contributions of up to half of the share capital, within a maximum period of 5 years, on one or more occasions, and at such times and in such amounts as it deems appropriate. Within the aforementioned maximum amount, the Board of Directors was empowered to exclude pre-emptive subscription rights up to a maximum of 20% of the share capital. In addition, the General Meeting authorised the issue of convertible bonds and, consequently, the capital increase to cover the conversion, although this power shall be subject to the following conditions conditional upon the total of the share capital increases agreed by the Board of Directors, including both those agreed in exercise of the powers now delegated and those that may be agreed pursuant to other authorisations of the General Meeting, not exceeding the limit of half of the current share capital provided for in article 297.1 b) in fine of the Capital Companies Act, nor 20% of said total share capital figure in the event that the issue of convertible securities excludes the shareholders' pre-emptive subscription rights.

On 26 June 2022, the Board of Directors resolved to make use of this authorisation to issue shares in accordance with the provisions of article 297.1 b) of the Capital Companies Act for an amount of 939,750 euros. Therefore, 3,947,459.42 euros remain to be made available with recognition of the pre-emptive subscription right and, within the aforementioned amount, 1,015,133.77 euros excluding the pre-emptive subscription right.

B.3. Indicate the rules applicable to the amendment of the company's articles of association. In particular, state the majorities required for the amendment of the statutes and, where appropriate, the rules laid down for the protection of the rights of members in the amendment of the statutes.

Pursuant to Articles 285 et seq. of the Capital Companies Act, the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company is responsible for agreeing any amendment to the Articles of Association.

The Articles of Association and the Rules of Procedure of the General Meeting contain the rules applicable to amendments to the Articles of Association.

Article 17 of the Articles of Association and Article 10 of the General Meeting Regulations establish a special quorum for the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders which is called to deliberate on any amendment of the Articles of Association.

"Notwithstanding the foregoing, in order for the General Meeting to validly resolve on the increase or reduction of capital and any other amendment of the Articles of Association, the issue of debentures convertible into shares or those that attribute to their holder a share in the profits of the Company, the suppression or limitation of the pre-emptive right to acquire new shares, as well as the transformation, merger, spin-off or global transfer of assets and liabilities and the transfer of the registered office abroad, or any others determined by law, shall require, on first call, the attendance of shareholders present or represented who hold at least fifty per cent of the subscribed capital with voting rights. On second call, the attendance of twenty-five per cent of the said capital shall be sufficient".

Likewise, Article 18.3 of the Articles of Association states that "Separate votes shall be taken at the General Shareholders' Meeting on matters that are substantially independent. Even if they figure in the same item on the agenda, they shall be voted on separately: (...) (ii) in the amendment of the Articles of Association, that of each article or group of articles that have their own autonomy; (...)".

On the other hand, in relation to majorities for the adoption of resolutions, Article 19.2 of the Articles of Association states that "For the adoption of the resolutions referred to in the second paragraph of Article 17 of these Articles of Association, if the capital present or represented exceeds fifty per cent, it shall be sufficient for the resolution to be adopted by an absolute majority. However, the favourable vote of two-thirds of the capital present or represented at the meeting shall be required when, at second call, shareholders representing twenty-five per cent or more of the subscribed capital with voting rights are present without reaching fifty per cent".

Article 2.3.c) of the Regulations of the General Shareholders' Meeting expressly attributes to the General Shareholders' Meeting the power to approve any amendment of the Articles of Association: "2.3.

If applicable, describe these diversity policies, their objectives, the measures and the manner in which they have been implemented and their results for the year. Specific measures taken by the board of directors and the nomination and remuneration committee to achieve a balanced and diverse presence of directors should also be disclosed.

If the company does not apply a diversity policy, explain the reasons why it does not do so.

Description of policies, objectives, measures and how they have been implemented, as well as the results obtained.

At its meeting of 8 November 2019, the Board of Directors approved, following a favourable report from the Audit, Control, Appointments and Remuneration Committee, the GREENERGY Director Selection Policy. At its meeting of 15 December 2020, the Board approved a modification of this policy to adapt it to the amendments to the Good Governance Code for Listed Companies approved by the CNMV in June 2020 and renamed it the Board of Directors' Composition Policy.

The purpose of this Policy is to establish the criteria and procedure that the Board of Directors of the Company shall follow in the selection processes relating to the appointment or re-election of the members of the Board of Directors of GREENERGY in order to make the functioning of the Board of Directors more effective and professional and to increase the quality of corporate management. In this regard, the Company, in the process of selection or re-election of candidates for directors, shall be guided by the purpose of achieving an appropriate balance on the Board of Directors in the best interests of the Company. In addition, the approval of this Policy will seek to ensure that the proposals for the appointment of directors is in line with the recommendations of the Code of Good Governance and the needs of the Company, and will constitute informed decisions that may be discussed by shareholders and the various stakeholders.

This policy establishes that, in the selection processes for the members of the Board of Directors, the bodies with competence in this matter shall at all times bear in mind the following principles:

- Principle of diversity of knowledge and experience, whereby efforts shall be made to ensure that the members of the Board of Directors have a diverse background, appropriate level and expertise and experiences that contribute to a broader vision on the part of the Board of Directors.
- Principle of non-discrimination, whereby no candidate may be excluded on the grounds of ideology, religion or belief, ethnicity, race or nation, gender, sexual orientation, family status, illness or disability.
- Principle of gender diversity, by virtue of which effective gender equality will be sought. Within the framework of this strategic element of diversity and under the terms of Recommendation 15 of the Code of Good Governance of Listed Companies, Greenergy Renovables S. A. has the objective that, by the end of 2022 and beyond, the number of female directors should represent at least 40% of the total number of members of the Board of Directors. By the end of 2022, the number of female directors was more than 40%.

The Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee intends to continue to meet the objective as well as to continue to promote measures that encourage the company to have a significant number of female senior managers.

The Company has not only exceeded the threshold recommended by the Code of Good Governance that 40% of the members of the Board of Directors should be women, but has also reached parity.

In addition, Greenergy's Code of Conduct establishes the following principles in relation to respect for people and human relations:

- To create and maintain a working and collaborative environment in which people feel respected and free to express their views, and in which fairness and equity are promoted.
- Equal opportunities and equal treatment, regardless of skin colour, ethnic or social origin, creed, age, disability, sexual identity or gender.
- Implement and disseminate the necessary measures to prevent, avoid and combat situations of harassment and sexual harassment in the workplace.

Any behaviour that may be considered abusive, hostile or offensive, whether verbal or physical, will be subject to sanction and will be followed up to avoid repetition in the future.

In definitive, continuing in any case with the criterion of incorporating independent professionals of recognised prestige, solvency and honour on the Board of Directors of the Company, the latest appointments of Directors have contributed to reinforcing the balanced composition of the Board of Directors and, in particular:

- (i) The presence of half of the independent directors on the Company's highest governing body;
- (ii) A more balanced composition of men and women, having reached the target of more than 40% representation of female directors out of the total number of members before the deadline set for this purpose;
- (iii) Greater knowledge of the sector of the promotion and commercialisation of renewable energy installations, financial and auditing aspects on the part of the independent Directors;
- (iv) Diversity in terms of competences, experiences, merits and skills.

Finally, on 10 February 2021, GREENERGY made a commitment to draw up an equal opportunities plan for women and men, following the guidelines set out in the legislation on the matter and, therefore, subject to the integration of the principle of equal treatment and opportunities, as set out in Organic Law 3/2017, of 22 March, for effective equality between women and men.

- C.1.6 Explain the measures, if any, agreed by the nomination committee to ensure that the selection procedures do not suffer from implicit biases that hinder the selection of female directors, and that the company deliberately seeks out and includes among potential candidates, women who meet the professional profile sought and who enable a balanced presence of women and men to be achieved. Also indicate whether these measures include encouraging the company to have a significant number of female senior managers:

Explanation of measures

Pursuant to Article 529 bis 2 of the Capital Companies Act, the Board of Directors must ensure that the procedures for the selection of its members favour diversity of gender, experience and knowledge and do not suffer from implicit bias that may involve any discrimination and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of female directors. This same legal obligation is also provided for in article 12 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, which also establishes that the Board of Directors shall facilitate the selection of female directors in a number that allows for a balanced presence of women and men.

In turn, article 31 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors establishes in section (15) that the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee is responsible for "proposing to the board of directors for its approval a policy for the selection and diversity of directors and verifying compliance therewith on an annual basis, reporting thereon in the Corporate Governance Report". Pursuant to the foregoing, the Audit, Control, Appointments and Remuneration Committee, at its meeting of 9 September 2019, analysed and reported favourably on the following Pursuant to article 529 bis 2 of the Capital Companies Act, the Board of Directors must ensure that the procedures for the selection of its members favour diversity of gender, experience and knowledge and do not suffer from implicit biases that could imply any discrimination and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of female directors. This same legal obligation is also provided for in article 12 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, which establishes that furthermore, that the Board of Directors shall facilitate the selection of female Directors in a number that allows for a balanced presence of women and men.

In turn, article 31 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors establishes in section (15) that the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee is responsible for "proposing to the board of directors for its approval a policy for the selection and diversity of directors and verifying compliance therewith on an annual basis, reporting thereon in the Corporate Governance Report". Pursuant to the foregoing, the Audit, Control, Appointments and Remuneration Committee, at its meeting of 9 September 2019, analysed and reported favourably on the following the aforementioned "Director Selection Policy" of Grenergy, which was subsequently approved by the Board of Directors. Likewise, the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee at its meeting of 9 December 2020 reported favourably on the modification of this policy (which was renamed Board of Directors Composition Policy) to adapt it to the modification of the Good Governance Code approved by the CNMV in June 2020. These amendments were approved by the Board of Directors on 15 December 2020.

Furthermore, according to article 31 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, section (3), it is the responsibility of the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee to "set a target for representation of the under-represented gender on the Board of Directors and to develop guidelines on how to achieve this target". The Board of Directors and the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee had set a target for the number of female directors (under-represented gender) to exceed 40% by the end of the financial year 2022. In this regard, the Company has met its objective of having 50% female directors on the Board of Directors by the end of the 2022 financial year (and currently).

Finally, in future modifications of the Board Composition Policy, the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee intends to continue to promote measures that encourage the Company to have a significant number of senior managers. Currently, including the head of internal audit, there is parity in senior management.

When, despite the measures taken, if any, there are few or no female directors or senior managers, explain the reasons for this:

- C.1.7 Explain the findings of the nomination committee on the verification of compliance with the policy aimed at promoting an appropriate composition of the board of directors.

GREENERGY complies with the target, applicable from 2022, for 40% of the members of the Board of Directors to be female directors. Currently 50% of the members of the Board of Directors are women.

In relation to senior management at GREENERGY, there is parity between men and women. Currently, the women who hold senior management positions are: the M&A development director, the financial director, on the management committee, and the head of internal audit. In this respect, new measures have been taken to further promote gender equality in the company in order to increase the number of female senior managers in GREENERGY.

C.1.8 Explain, if applicable, the reasons why proprietary directors have been appointed at the request of shareholders whose shareholding is less than 3% of the share capital:

Yes
 No

C.1.16 Indicate the procedures for the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of directors. List the competent bodies, the procedures to be followed and the criteria to be applied in each of the procedures.

The system for the selection, appointment and re-election of members of the Board of Directors is a formal and transparent procedure, which is expressly regulated in the Articles of Association and the Board of Directors' Regulations.

The Company has a "Policy on the Composition of the Board of Directors" whose purpose is to establish the criteria and procedure that the Board of Directors will follow in the selection processes relating to the appointment or re-election of the members of the Board of Directors in order to make the functioning of the Board of Directors more effective and professional and to increase the quality of the Board's work. management of the Company. In this regard, the Company, in the process of selecting or re-electing candidates for Directors, shall be guided by the aim of achieving an appropriate balance on the Board of Directors in the best interests of the Company.

The Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee is responsible for verifying compliance with the policy on an annual basis. During the financial year 2022, the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee has verified favourably the appropriate composition of the Board of Directors and no Directors were appointed.

In the selection processes of the members of the Board of Directors, the bodies with competence in this matter shall bear in mind the following principles:

- Principle of diversity of knowledge and experience, whereby efforts shall be made to ensure that the members of the Board of Directors have a diverse background, appropriate level and expertise and experiences that contribute to a broader vision on the part of the Board of Directors.

- Principle of non-discrimination, whereby no candidate may be excluded on the grounds of ideology, religion or belief, ethnicity, race or nation, gender, sexual orientation, family status, illness or disability.

- Principle of gender diversity, by virtue of which effective gender equality will be sought. Within the framework of this strategic element of diversity and under the terms of Recommendation 15 of the Good Governance Code of Listed Companies, the Company has the objective that, by the end of 2022 and thereafter, the number of female directors should represent at least 40% of the total number of members of the Board of Directors. The Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee intends to continue to meet the target as well as to continue to promote measures that encourage the company to have a significant number of female senior managers. By the end of 2022, the number of female directors was more than 40%, and in particular, the proportion of women on the Board of Directors was 50%.

- Principle of absence of a permanent conflict of interest, according to which persons whose position could give rise to the fear of a permanent conflict of interest are to be preferred.

- Principle of appropriate composition of the Board of Directors, whereby the Board of Directors shall bring its composition into line with the regulations and technical guidelines in force:

i) Independent and Proprietary Directors should represent an ample majority over Executive Directors, and

ii) The percentage of proprietary directors out of the total number of non-executive directors should not be greater than the proportion existing between the capital of the company represented by such directors and the rest of the capital, without prejudice, where appropriate, to the adaptation of this criterion in accordance with the terms of the recommendations of good governance in this area assumed by the company.

In order to be appointed as a member of the Board of Directors, the candidate must meet the following requirements:

- Be an honourable, suitable person of recognised professional solvency, competence, experience, qualification, training and be available for the exercise of the post.

- Assume the commitment to comply with the duties and obligations of the Directors and to respect the Company's Code of Conduct.

- In the case of Independent Directors, to meet the independence requirements set forth in the applicable regulations, including the Company's own. In the case of Proprietary Directors, the Director shall be required to comply with the independence requirements for Independent Directors.

Candidates shall not be proposed as candidates to occupy the post of Director if they are affected by any legal cause of prohibition or incompatibility for the performance of their duties, as well as the following:

a) Persons who hold directorships on the governing bodies of other companies in excess of the limits set out in the Regulations of the Board of Directors, or who will exceed those limits if appointed as a Director of the Board of Directors, unless they undertake to comply with the indicated number if they are appointed.

b) Those who perform similar functions or hold positions of responsibility in directly competing companies, in entities that control such companies and, in general, those persons whose position could give rise to the fear of the existence of a permanent conflict of interest.

C.1.17 Explain to what extent the annual evaluation of the board has led to significant changes in its internal organisation and in the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description modifications

The Board of Directors carried out its annual evaluation in the last quarter of the financial year 2021 and the first months of the financial year 2022, with the collaboration of an external consultant, Paragon Partners. As a result of this evaluation, the main organisational change affecting the composition of the Board of Directors is to separate the function of Secretary from that of Director, so that no Director combines his function with that of Secretary of the Board of Directors. This has led to the resignation as Secretary of the Board of Directors of Mr. Florentino Vivancos Gasset, who remains a Proprietary Director, and to the appointment as Secretary of the Board of Directors of Ms. Lucía García Clavería.

The evaluation of the Board of Directors of the financial year 2022 initiated at the end of the financial year 2022 has not yet determined any relevant measures.

Describe the evaluation process and the areas evaluated by the board of directors, assisted, where appropriate, by an external consultant, with respect to the functioning and composition of the board and its committees and any other area or aspect that has been subject to evaluation.

Description of the evaluation process and areas evaluated

Article 31 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors entrusts the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee with "Organising and coordinating the periodic evaluation of the Board, as well as, where appropriate, that of the chief executive of the Company". In addition, in accordance with article 26 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, in the event that the Chairman is an executive director, such as the Chairman of the Board of Directors, he shall be appointed by the Board of Directors as an executive director. In the case of GREENERGY, the Coordinating Director shall have the power and function of "directing, as appropriate, the periodic evaluation of the Board of Directors".

During the financial year 2022, the evaluation of the Board of Directors was carried out internally, without recourse to an external consultant.

The evaluation included the analysis of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, the Chairman of the Board of Directors (chief executive of the company), the Coordinating Director and the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

The evaluation has taken place as follows:

1.- A questionnaire for the corresponding evaluation was prepared by the body responsible for organising the evaluation. In the case of the evaluation of the Board and the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, the body that prepared it was the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, in the case of that of the Chairman of the Board, the coordinating director and in the case of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee itself prepared the questionnaires. In cases where a Committee was responsible, the initiative was taken in particular by the Chairman of the Committee.

Once the respective questionnaires had been approved, they were sent to the members of each body, including the Secretary, with the instruction that they be returned duly completed to the Secretary of the Board of Directors. In the case of the questionnaire relating to the evaluation of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, this was sent to all directors except the Chairman of the Board.

3.- Once the duly completed questionnaires had been received by the secretary, she was responsible for drawing up an initial report containing the responses ("blind" or "anonymous") of each member. She then forwarded the answers to the bodies that would carry out the evaluation: i.e. the Audit Committee for its own evaluation and the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee for its own evaluation, that of the Board and that of the Chairman of the Board.

4.- In relation to the evaluation of the Chairman of the Board, the coordinating councillor also held an individual interview with each of the councillors to receive their comments and opinions on the matter.

5.- The body responsible for carrying out the evaluation approved a final evaluation report with the conclusions of the evaluation.

6.- All evaluations were presented at a meeting of the Board of Directors in the presence of all directors.

7.- The Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee and the Audit Committee have presented their respective conclusions in relation to the evaluation carried out at the Board of Directors' meeting held on 31 January 2023, at which the proposed action plans were approved.

C.1.18 For those years in which the evaluation has been assisted by an external consultant, a breakdown of the business relationships that the consultant or any company in its group has with the company or any company in its group.

GREENERGY, whose shares were admitted to trading on an official secondary securities market in December 2019, has carried out three Board of Directors' evaluations; in 2020, 2021 and 2022. Only in the evaluation of the 2021 financial year was it assisted by Paragon Partners.

Neither Paragon Partners nor any of its group companies has any business relationship with GREENERGY or any of its group companies, other than the assignment in relation to the evaluation of the Board of Directors for the financial year 2021.

C.1.19 Indicate the cases in which directors are obliged to resign.

Article 14 of the Board of Directors' Regulations establishes that Directors must tender their resignation to the Board of Directors and formalise, if the Board deems it appropriate after a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, the corresponding resignation in the following cases:

1.- When they incur in any of the cases of incompatibility or prohibition provided for by law, the Articles of Association or these Regulations of the Board of Directors.

2.- When they cease to hold the executive positions with which their appointment as Directors was associated or when the reasons for which they were appointed cease to exist. In particular, proprietary Directors shall tender their resignation when the shareholder they represent transfers its entire shareholding in the Company or reduces it to a level that requires a reduction in the number of proprietary Directors.

In those cases in which, notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the Board of Directors considers that there are reasons that justify the permanence of the Director, the impact that the new circumstances that have arisen may have on the Director's qualification shall be taken into account.

3.- When they seriously infringe their obligations as Directors, putting the interests of the Company at risk.

4.- When their continuity as a member of the Board may adversely affect the functioning of the Board or harm the credit and reputation of the Company for any reason. In particular, Directors must inform the Board of situations affecting them, related or not to their actions in the Company itself, which may damage the credit and reputation of the Company, and, in particular, of any criminal proceedings in which they are under investigation, as well as of the procedural vicissitudes thereof. In any case, whether or not the board has been informed of any of the situations mentioned in this section, it shall examine the case as soon as possible and, in view of the specific circumstances, shall decide, after a report from the appointments and remuneration committee, whether or not to adopt any measure, such as opening an internal investigation, requesting the resignation of the director or proposing his removal. The board shall report thereon in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are special circumstances that justify it, which shall be recorded in the minutes. This is without prejudice to the information that the company must disclose, if appropriate, when the corresponding measures are adopted.

In addition, the Board of Directors may propose the removal of Directors before the expiry of the statutory period for which they were appointed when there are exceptional and justified causes approved by the Board itself, and after a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee.

C.1.20 Are qualified majorities, other than legal majorities, required for any kind of decision?

C.1.24 Indicate whether the bylaws or the regulations of the board of directors establish specific rules for proxy voting in the board of directors in favour of other directors, the manner of doing so and, in particular, the maximum number of proxies that a director may hold, as well as whether any limitations have been established as to the categories to which proxies may be granted, beyond the limitations imposed by law. If so, give a brief description of these rules.

Article 15.2 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors establishes that Directors are obliged to "attend in person the meetings of the Board and other Committees of which they form part, and actively participate in the deliberations so that their judgement contributes effectively to the decision-making process. Non-attendance of Directors should be limited to essential cases and will be quantified in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, Directors may delegate their proxy to another Director, with the particularity that non-executive Directors may only do so to another non-executive Director. In cases of delegation, Directors must give specific instructions to the proxy regarding the direction of the vote on matters submitted for discussion".

C.1.25 Indicate the number of meetings held by the board of directors during the year. Also indicate, if applicable, the number of times the board has met without the attendance of its chairman. In the computation, proxies made with specific instructions shall be considered as attendances.

The Regulations of the Board of Directors stipulate in article 10, second paragraph, that the annual accounts submitted to the Board of Directors for formulation must first be certified as to their accuracy and completeness by the chief financial officer or head of the relevant department. In this case it has been Emi Takehara, as Chief Financial Officer.

C.1.28 Explain the mechanisms, if any, established by the board of directors to ensure that the annual accounts submitted by the board of directors to the general meeting of shareholders are drawn up in accordance with accounting regulations.

GREENERGY has approved, within the Internal Financial Information System (SCIIF), a manual that regulates the Accounting Closing, Consolidation and Reporting Process, which guarantees the correct formulation of the financial statements.

In addition, the Audit Committee, composed in financial year 2022 of a large majority of Independent Directors (three quarters), continuously monitors the process of preparing the financial information throughout the year by means of meetings with executives from the financial area. It also meets with the external auditors to review the Company's annual accounts and interim statements, as well as certain periodic financial information that the Board of Directors must provide to the markets and their supervisory bodies, overseeing compliance with legal requirements and the correct application of the principles of corporate governance in their preparation. generally accepted accounting standards. At these meetings, any discussions or differences of opinion between the Company's management and the external auditors are anticipated so that the Board of Directors can take the appropriate measures to ensure that the audit reports are issued without qualifications.

In this respect, article 10 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors states: "The relations of the Board of Directors with the external auditor shall be conducted through the Audit Committee, which shall ensure that the Board of Directors presents the accounts to the General Meeting of Shareholders without limitations or qualifications in the audit report. In the exceptional cases in which qualifications exist, the

The Chairman of the Audit Committee and, exceptionally, the auditors, shall clearly explain to the shareholders the content and scope of such limitations or qualifications.

C.1.30 Indicate the specific mechanisms established by the company to preserve the independence of the external auditors, as well as, if any, the mechanisms to preserve the independence of financial analysts, investment banks and rating agencies, including how the legal provisions have been implemented in practice.

Article 10 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors deals with relations with the external auditor. In this regard, article 10 states:

"Relations with the auditor

The relations of the Board of Directors with the external auditor shall be conducted through the Audit Committee, which shall ensure that the Board of Directors presents the accounts to the General Shareholders' Meeting without limitations or qualifications in the audit report. In exceptional cases where qualifications exist, the Chairman of the Audit Committee and, exceptionally, the auditors shall clearly explain to the shareholders the content and scope of such limitations or qualifications.

The annual accounts submitted to the Board of Directors for formulation must first be certified as to their accuracy and completeness by the chief financial officer or head of the relevant department".

The mechanisms to preserve the independence of the external auditor are:

- The proposal for the appointment of the auditors and the entire process for their selection, as well as the analysis of the conditions of their engagement and the scope of their professional mandate, and their revocation or non-renewal, are the responsibility of the Audit Committee, which in the 2022 financial year was made up of a large majority of Independent Directors (three quarters), and which, as a whole, has sufficient technical knowledge both in accounting matters and in GREENERGY's sector of activity.

- The Audit Committee establishes the appropriate relations with the external auditor in order to receive information on those matters that may threaten its independence, for examination by the Committee, and any other matters related to the process of auditing the accounts, and, where appropriate, the authorisation of services other than those prohibited, in the terms contemplated in current legislation on the independence regime, as well as those other communications contemplated in legislation on auditing the accounts and in the auditing standards. In any event, it receives annually from the external auditors a declaration of their independence in relation to the Company or entities directly or indirectly related to it, as well as detailed and individualised information on additional services of any kind rendered and the corresponding fees received from these entities by the external auditor or entities related to it in accordance with the provisions of the regulations governing the auditing of accounts.

Likewise, the Audit Committee also issues an annual report, prior to the issuance of the audit report, expressing an opinion on whether the independence of the auditors or audit firms is compromised. This report contains, in any case, a reasoned assessment of the provision of each and every one of the additional services referred to in the previous point, individually considered and as a whole, other than the statutory audit and in relation to the independence regime or to the regulations governing the activity of auditing accounts.

- The Company discloses in its consolidated annual report the fees paid to its external auditors for each item other than the audit of the financial statements.

At its meeting held on 21 February 2022, the Audit Committee approved the report on the independence of the Company's external auditors for the financial year 2021, which also made a pronouncement on the provision of additional services other than auditing the accounts.

The financial year 2022 is the fourth financial year in which the auditor has provided its services. Ernst & Young S.L. was initially appointed by the General Meeting on 17 June 2019 for three financial years (2019, 2020 and 2021) and was subsequently renewed for two additional financial years (2022 and 2023) by resolution of the General Meeting on 11 May 2022.

- During this financial year 2022 Ernst&Young has provided, subject to the favourable agreement of the Audit Committee, other services such as the report on compliance with financial covenants in relation to the Bond issues made in 2019 and 2022, the review of the half-yearly statements and the report on agreed procedures in relation to the information contained in the Annual Corporate Governance Report on ICFR.

With regard to the mechanisms established to guarantee the independence of financial analysts, the internal rules of conduct of the Company and its Group in relation to the financial markets require GREENERGY to ensure that the content of the information it discloses to the public is not subject to the same conditions as the information it provides to the market. is truthful, clear, complete and not misleading to the market. The Company also has a Policy on Communication and Contacts with Shareholders, Institutional Investors and Proxy Advisors, approved by the Board of Directors of the Company on 28 November 2019 (as amended by the Board of Directors of the Company on 15 December 2020), which is available at for any interested party on its website. In addition to the principles of transparency, truthfulness, immediacy, equality and symmetry, it establishes that, although meetings are held with analysts and Institutional Investors by the Company, this shall be without prejudice to the principle of equal treatment of all shareholders who are in identical conditions and who are not affected by conflicts of competition or interest.

C.1.31 Indicate whether the Company has changed external auditors during the financial year. If so, identify the incoming and outgoing auditors:

- Yes
 No

If there were disagreements with the outgoing auditor, explain the content of these disagreements:

- Yes
 No

C.1.32 Indicate whether the audit firm performs other non-audit work for the company and/or its group and if so, state the amount of fees received for such work and the percentage that the above amount represents of the fees invoiced for audit work to the company and/or its group:

- Yes
 No

	Society	Group companies	Total
Amount of other non-audit work (thousands of euros)	64	28	92
Amount of non-audit work / Amount of audit work (in %)	36,36	20,14	29,21

C.1.33 Indicate whether the audit report on the annual accounts for the previous year is qualified. If so, indicate the reasons given to the shareholders at the General Meeting by the chairman of the audit committee to explain the content and scope of such qualifications.

- Yes
 No

C.1.34 Indicate the number of consecutive years that the current audit firm has been auditing the individual and/or consolidated annual accounts of the company. Also indicate the percentage that the number of financial years audited by the current audit firm represents of the total number of financial years in which the annual accounts have been audited:

C.1.35 Indicate whether there is a procedure to ensure that directors have the necessary information to prepare for meetings of the governing bodies in sufficient time and, if so, provide details:

Yes
 No

Details of the procedure

Article 20 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, referring to the powers of information and inspection, establishes that "in the performance of his duties, the Director has the duty to demand and the right to obtain from the Company the appropriate and necessary information for the fulfilment of his obligations. In this respect, the Director is vested with the broadest powers to obtain information on any aspect of the Company, to examine its books, records, documents and other background information on corporate operations and to inspect all its facilities.

The aforementioned right to information shall be exercised through the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary of the Board, who shall respond to requests from Directors by providing them with the information directly, by offering them the appropriate interlocutors or by arranging the measures to enable them to carry out the desired examinations and inspections.

On the other hand, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, with the collaboration of the Secretary, shall ensure that the Directors have the necessary information in advance and sufficiently in advance for the deliberation and adoption of resolutions on the matters to be dealt with, unless the Board of Directors has been constituted or has been exceptionally convened for reasons of urgency".

Furthermore, article 21 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors requires the Company to "establish the appropriate channels so that Directors may obtain the necessary advice for the performance of their duties, including, if circumstances so require, external advice at the Company's expense. The Board of Directors may oppose the engagement of external experts at the Company's expense in such cases as it deems appropriate:

- (i) That it is not necessary for the performance of the duties entrusted to the Directors;
- (ii) That its cost is not reasonable in view of the materiality of the matter and the assets or income of the Company; or
- (iii) That the technical assistance sought can be adequately provided by the Company's experts and technicians".

Finally, article 29 of the Board of Directors' Regulations establishes the obligation of any employee or officer of the Company to attend the meetings of any of the Committees when required to do so.

C.1.36 Indicate whether the company has established rules obliging directors to inform and, where appropriate, to resign when situations arise that affect them, whether or not related to their actions in the company itself, which could damage the credit and reputation of the company:

Yes
 No

Explain the rules

Article 14 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors establishes that Directors must tender their resignation to the Board of Directors and, if the Board deems it appropriate after a report from the Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, tender their resignation when their continued membership of the Board may adversely affect the functioning of the Board of Directors or damage the credit and reputation of the Company for any reason whatsoever. In particular, Directors must inform the Board of situations affecting them, whether or not related to their performance in the Company itself, which may damage the credit and reputation of the Company, and, in particular, of any criminal proceedings in which they are under investigation, as well as the progress of the proceedings. In any event, whether or not

The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become aware of any of the situations mentioned in this section, shall examine the case as soon as possible and, in view of the specific circumstances, shall decide, following a report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, whether or not to adopt any measure, such as opening an internal investigation, requesting the resignation of the Director or proposing his or her removal. The Board of Directors shall report thereon in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are special circumstances that justify it, which shall be recorded in the minutes. This is without prejudice to the information that the Company must disclose, if appropriate, when the corresponding measures are adopted.

C.1.37 Indicate, unless special circumstances have arisen which have been recorded in the minutes, whether the board has been informed or has otherwise become aware of any situation affecting a director, whether or not related to his or her performance in the company itself, which could damage the credit and reputation of the company:

Yes
 No

C.1.38 List any significant agreements entered into by the company which come into force, are amended or terminate in the event of a change of control of the company following a takeover bid, and their effects.

They do not exist.

C.1.39 Identify individually, in the case of directors, and in aggregate in all other cases, and indicate, in detail, the agreements between the company and its directors, management or employees that provide for indemnities, guarantee or golden parachute clauses, when they resign or are unfairly dismissed or if the contractual relationship is terminated by a takeover bid or other transaction.

Number of beneficiaries	1
Type of beneficiary	Description of the agreement
Executive Chairman and CEO	Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer In the event of termination of his contract due to resignation by the Company, the Chief Executive Officer shall be entitled to receive a severance payment of a maximum of two annual instalments of his total annual remuneration (which shall in no case take into account his potential participation in the Share Option Plan).

Indicate whether, in addition to the cases provided for in the regulations, these contracts must be notified and/or approved by the bodies of the company or its group. If so, specify the procedures, the cases envisaged and the nature of the bodies responsible for approval or notification:

	Board of Directors	General Meeting

Is the general meeting informed about the clauses?	√

The internal system for approving the terms and conditions of the contracts entered into by the Company or the Group companies with Senior Management and its Directors, regulated in the Articles of Association and in the Regulations implementing the Board of Directors and its delegated Committees, does not differ from the legal system provided for in the Capital Companies Act.

The clauses of senior management contracts are approved by the Board of Directors, subject to a favourable report from the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee.

Information regarding these clauses, incorporated in the Chief Executive Officer's contract, is included in the Annual Report on Directors' Remuneration for the financial year 2022, which will be submitted to the advisory vote of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders 2023, as a separate item on the agenda.

D. RELATED-PARTY AND INTRA-GROUP TRANSACTIONS

D.1. Explain, if applicable, the procedure and competent bodies for the approval of related-party and intragroup transactions, indicating the criteria and general internal rules of the entity that regulate the abstention obligations of the directors or shareholders affected and detailing the procedures, internal reporting and periodic control systems established by the company in relation to those related-party transactions whose approval has been delegated by the board of directors.

Pursuant to Article 18 of the Board of Directors' Regulations: "The prior express authorisation of the Board of Directors shall be required, without the possibility of delegation, and following a favourable report from the Audit Committee, in the following cases, among others:

- Provision of professional services by a Director to the Company or Group companies. This does not include employment or any other type of relationship that executive Directors have with the Company.
- Sale, or transfer in any other form, for a consideration of any kind, by a Director, a significant shareholder or shareholder represented on the Board or with persons related to them, to the Company or Group companies, of supplies, materials, goods or rights, in general.
- Transfer by the Company or Group companies in favour of a Director, a significant shareholder or shareholder represented on the Board or with persons related to them, of supplies, materials, goods or rights, in general, outside the ordinary business of the transferring company.
- Provision of works, services or sale of materials by the Company or Group companies in favour of a Director, a significant shareholder or shareholder represented on the Board or with persons related to them which, being part of the ordinary business of those companies, are made under economic conditions below market conditions.
- Approval, subject in all cases to a favourable report from the Audit Committee, of the business relationships established by the Company or its subsidiaries with its parent company (or parent) or its subsidiaries, and ensuring that these are publicly disclosed, at least in the Annual Corporate Governance Report. In this case, the votes of Directors who have any kind of connection with the parent company or its filiarities must abstain or, as the case may be, shall not be counted.
- Any other legal transaction with the Company or Group companies in which the Director or persons related to him/her have a direct or indirect interest.

The above-mentioned approval by the Board of Directors shall not be required when the transactions simultaneously meet the following three characteristics:

1. They are made under contracts whose conditions are standardised and applied en masse to a large number of customers;
- 2º. That they are carried out at prices or rates generally established by whoever acts as the supplier of the good or service in question; and
- 3º. That their amount does not exceed 1% of the Company's annual income.

In any case, relevant transactions of any kind carried out by any Director or significant shareholder with the Company, its subsidiaries or investees must be recorded in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

Likewise, article 30.11.c) of the Board of Directors' Regulations establishes as a function of the Audit Committee "to report, in advance, to the Board of Directors on ... transactions with related parties". And article 30.18 of the Board of Directors' Regulations establishes as a function of the Audit Committee the following: "To report on the related-party transactions that it must approve the general meeting or the board of directors and to supervise the internal procedure established by the company for those whose approval has been delegated.

There have been no other significant transactions between the Company or Group entities with other related parties.

- D.6. List the mechanisms in place to detect, determine and resolve possible conflicts of interest between the company and/or its group, and its directors, executives, significant shareholders or other related parties.

Article 17 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors states that:

"Directors shall take the necessary measures to avoid situations in which their interests, whether their own or those of others, may conflict with the interests of the Company and with their duties to the Company.

In particular, the duty to avoid situations of conflict of interest obliges the Director to refrain from:

- Carrying out transactions with the Company, except in the case of ordinary transactions, made on standard terms and conditions for customers and of little relevance, understood as those whose information is not necessary to express the full picture of the Company's net worth, financial situation and results.
- Using the name of the Company or invoking his or her status as a Director to improperly influence the conduct of private transactions.
- To make use of corporate assets, including the Company's confidential information, for private purposes.
- Take advantage of the Company's business opportunities.
- Obtain advantages or remuneration from third parties other than the Company and its Group, associated with the performance of their duties, except in the case of mere courtesy.

f) Engaging in activities for their own account or for the account of others which involve effective competition, whether actual or potential, with the Company or which in any other way are in permanent conflict with the interests of the Company.

In particular, Directors may not hold, either personally or through an intermediary, positions of any kind in companies or firms that are competitors of the Company or of any of its Group companies, nor may they provide representation or consultancy services on behalf of such companies or firms.

The foregoing shall also apply in the event that the beneficiary of the prohibited acts or activities is a person related to the Director. Persons related to Directors shall be deemed to be those persons mentioned in the Capital Companies Act.

In any case, the Directors must inform the Board of Directors of any situation of direct or indirect conflict of interest that they or persons related to them may have with the interests of the Company. Situations of conflict of interest in which Directors are involved shall be disclosed in the Annual Report and in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

2. However, the Company may waive the prohibitions contained in the preceding section in individual cases, authorising a Director or a related person to carry out a specific transaction with the Company, to use certain corporate assets, to take advantage of a specific business opportunity or to obtain an advantage or remuneration from a third party.

The authorisation must necessarily be agreed by the General Meeting when its purpose is to waive the prohibition on obtaining an advantage or remuneration from third parties, or when it affects a transaction whose value exceeds 10% of the company's assets, and may be granted in other cases by the Board of Directors, provided that the independence of the members granting the authorisation with respect to the Director being dispensed with is guaranteed. Furthermore, the harmlessness of the authorised transaction for the company's assets or, as the case may be, its execution under market conditions and the transparency of the process must be ensured.

The obligation not to compete with the Company may only be waived if no harm to the Company is to be expected or if the expected harm is outweighed by the expected benefits to the Company. The waiver shall be granted by express and separate resolution of the General Meeting."

Finally, the Code of Conduct establishes a series of guidelines and precautions regarding conflicts of interest for Grenergy's management bodies, collaborators and employees.

D.7. Indicate whether the company is controlled by another entity within the meaning of Article 42 of the Commercial Code, whether listed or not, and has, directly or through its filiates, business relationships with that entity or any of its filiates (other than those of the listed company) or engages in activities related to those of any of them.

Indicate whether the respective areas of activity and any business relationships between the listed company or its subsidiaries on the one hand and the parent company or its subsidiaries on the other hand have been accurately disclosed publicly:

Report on the respective areas of activity and any business relationships between, on the one hand, the listed company or its subsidiaries and, on the other hand, the parent company or its subsidiaries, and identify where these aspects have been

Mr. David Ruiz de Andrés owns 54.00% of the share capital of Grenergy Renovables S.A. through his wholly-owned company Daruan Group Holding S.L.U. Regarding business relations, see section D.2. of this report.

The only business relationships between the entities are the related party transactions that have been reported in this report for the financial year 2022 (and which will be reported to the General Meeting in due course through the relevant Audit Committee report to be made available to the General Meeting).

Related-party transactions in relation to the 2021 financial year have already been reported in the report prepared by the Audit Committee, which was made available to the General Meeting of 11 May 2022 when it was convened. Specifically, this report is published on the website at the following link:

Identify the mechanisms foreseen to resolve possible conflicts of interest between the other parent company of the listed company and the other companies of the group:

Mechanisms for resolving potential conflicts of interest

The Company has established the mechanisms to resolve possible conflicts of interest between the parent company of the listed company and the other companies of the group, by means of a modification of the Board Regulations to include among the transactions that must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors the following: "business relationships established by the Company or its filiaries with its parent (or parent) entity or the filiaries of the latter".

The approval of these transactions also requires in any case the favourable report of the Audit Committee, with the abstention of persons who are in a conflict of interest. In this way, a prerequisite is established that prevents the participation of a person related to the parent company. Furthermore, as established in Article 18 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, in the board's decision "the votes of directors who have any kind of connection with the parent company or its subsidiaries shall not be counted".

In addition, the aforementioned article 18 of the Regulation establishes the obligation to publicly report on these transactions in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

It also falls within the competence of the Audit Committee according to Article 30 (18):

"18. Report on related-party transactions to be approved by the general meeting or the board of directors and supervise the internal procedure established by the company for those whose approval has been delegated".

E. RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

E.1. Explain the scope of the company's financial and non-financial Risk Control and Management System, including those of a fiscal nature.

The Board of Directors of GREENERGY, as provided for in article 4 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, is responsible for determining the Group's risk control and management policy, identifying the Company's main risks and implementing and supervising the relevant information and control systems, in order to ensure the future viability and competitiveness of the Company.

In this context, the Risk Management and Control Policy aims to establish the basic principles and the general framework of a plan for the control and management of the different types of risks that affect the Group in the various countries in which it operates, so that the risks are at all times identified, quantified and managed.

The risk management process is briefly described in the General Risk Management and Control Policy.

The starting point of the process is the definition of the concept of risk, and the identification of the main risk factors that can affect the company. This was done by drawing up a risk map that assesses each risk in terms of probability and impact on key management objectives and financial statements. This risk classification allows for a prioritisation of risks. The risk map was approved by the Board of Directors on 15 December 2020, has been updated by resolution of the Board of Directors on 20 September 2021 and finally the Committee on 18 July 2022 updated the risk map again.

Within the Risk Management System, the business units must function as the first line of defence: they will be responsible for properly identifying and quantifying the risks that affect them, as well as implementing the necessary policies and controls to reasonably mitigate them. The risk map identifies the business units that must manage the specific risks.

Internal audit, which is independent of the businesses, will assess the group's risk situation and report periodically to the Board of Directors on these risks. It may also carry out independent reviews of the functioning of the controls established by the different business units.

Finally, and transversally, GREENERGY has a Compliance Unit whose responsibility is to carry out all the necessary actions for the correct implementation and operation of the Crime Prevention System, as well as its monitoring. It must also promote and supervise the degree of implementation of the regulations, both internal and external, within the group, participating in the clarification of potential non-compliances that are communicated through the established communication channels.

E.2. Identify the bodies of the company responsible for the development and implementation of the financial and non-financial Risk Management and Control System, including the fiscal.

The main responsibilities of the bodies and areas involved in Risk Management and Control at GREENERGY are detailed below:

The Board of Directors is responsible for determining the risk control and management policy, including the fiscal risks, identifying the main risks of the Company and implementing and supervising the internal information and control systems, in order to ensure the future viability and competitiveness of the Company, adopting the most relevant decisions for its best development.

The Audit Committee is responsible for, among others:

- Supervise the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, internal audit and risk management systems, as well as discuss with the auditor any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected in the course of the audit, all of this without infringing its independence. To this end, it may submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors.

- Directly supervise the internal risk control and management function exercised by an internal authority or department of the Company, which shall be expressly attributed the following functions: (i) to ensure the proper functioning of the risk control and management systems and, in particular, that all significant risks affecting the Company are adequately identified, managed and quantified; and (ii) to ensure the proper functioning of the risk control and management systems and, in particular, that all significant risks affecting the Company are adequately identified, managed and quantified.

that the risk control and management model is based on different risk levels; (iii) actively participate in the development of the risk strategy and in major risk management decisions; and (iii) ensure that the risk control and management systems mitigate risks adequately within the framework of the policy defined by the Board of Directors. In any event, the risks referred to in the

The above will be both financial and non-financial (including operational, technological, legal, social, social, environmental, political, reputational and corruption-related).

- Ensuring the independence and effectiveness of the internal audit function, proposing, if deemed appropriate, the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of the head of the internal audit service, as well as proposing the budget of the internal audit service, approving its orientation and work plans, ensuring that its activity is mainly focused on the Company's relevant risks, receiving regular information on its activities and verifying that senior management takes into account the conclusions and recommendations of its reports;

- Approve the annual work plan of the internal audit function, including reputational risks, and receive information on any incidents arising in its development and an annual activity report.

- The assessment of all the Company's non-financial risks, including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, environmental, political and reputational risks.

Internal audit, which is independent of the businesses, will assess the group's risk situation and report periodically to the Board of Directors on these risks. It may also carry out independent reviews of the functioning of the controls established by the different business units.

The Compliance Unit is responsible for carrying out all necessary actions for the correct implementation and operation of the Crime Prevention System, as well as for defining and applying procedures to promote compliance with the external and internal regulations applicable to Grenergy.

Finally, the Business Units are responsible for adequately identifying and quantifying the risks that affect them, as well as implementing and ensuring compliance with the policies and controls necessary to reasonably mitigate them. In this regard, the Company has identified the following as the main risk-taking units in the different phases of the value chain:

- Development
- Project Funding
- Construction
- Power Generation
- Operation and Maintenance
- Asset Management
- Shopping
- Finance

E.3. Indicate the main risks, financial and non-financial, including those fiscal and, to the extent significant, those arising from corruption (the latter within the scope of Royal Decree Law 18/2017), which may affect the achievement of the business objectives.

In general, a risk is considered to be any internal or external contingency which, if it materialises, could prevent the Group from achieving its objectives and carrying out its strategy and business plans successfully, adversely affecting the results and financial situation of the companies of the GREENERGY Group. The risk factors to which the GREENERGY Group is subject are, in general, the following:

External risks

Macroeconomic risks derived from the current economic situation and its impact on the renewable energy market. 1.2.- Regulatory and political risks.

1.3.- Market Competition Risk (competitors)

1.4.- Market Competition Risk (other energy sources) 1.5.- Market

Competition Risk (over-demand of panels) 1.6.

1.7.- Increased raw material costs

1.8.- Risks derived from the volatility of solar and wind resources due to weather conditions during certain periods. 1.9.- Risk of weather, natural disasters, vandalism or terrorism:

1.10.-Currency exchange rate risk 1.11.-

Interest rate risk

1.12.-Risk of evacuation restriction due to congestion at transport hubs 1.13.-

Climate change risk

1.14.-Reputational risk due to impact on biodiversity. 2.-

Internal risks

2.1.- Negotiating downwards or termination of service contracts

2.2.- Dependence on a limited number of suppliers and subcontractors

2.3.- Failure to obtain or loss of permits, licences and authorisations (PLAs)

2.4.- Risk linked to obtaining and maintaining rights of use over land and easements.

2.5.- Risk linked to the creation of temporary groupings of undertakings for the construction of common infrastructure.

2.6.- Repairs required in the components of the Projects and an eventual insufficiency of the insurance coverage contracted. 2.7.-

Technological risk, exploitation and/or dismantling or re-machining of renewable projects.

Credit risk

Liquidity risk
2.10.-Risk of the conditions of guarantees and their enforcement
2.11.-Risk of reputational risk due to environmental impact
2.12.-Reputational risk due to credibility in the capital markets. 2.13.-
Corporate governance risks.
2.14.-Termination of Power Purchase Agreements (PPAs)
2.15.-Risk of contractual non-compliance by suppliers 2.16.-Risk of retaining and attracting talent
2.17.-Risk of corruption
2.18.-Information technology risk 2.19.-Local community relations risk 2.20.-Local fiscal risk

E.4. Identify whether the entity has risk tolerance levels, including for fiscal risk.

GREENERGY has identified the specific risks by means of a risk map in which they are classified according to their impact and probability of occurrence. Based on this, it has determined the most relevant risks and has established the controls to be applied by the Business Units in the management of these risks.

The Business Units, in their normal activity, implement management measures aimed at reasonably mitigating the risks that affect them; however, for the time being, there are no formalised tolerance levels for each of the risks.

E.5. Indicate which risks, financial and non-financial, including fiscal, have materialised during the year.

In financial year 2022, risks inherent to the activity of GREENERGY and the market environment have materialised, arising from the circumstances inherent to the development of the business, the economic situation and the conflict in Ukraine. In this regard, there have been increases in raw material and energy prices, as well as increases in financing interest rates. However, the financial information adequately reflects that the Group's financial position has not been significantly affected by the materialisation of these risks.

E.6. Explain the response and monitoring plans for the entity's main risks, including fiscal risks, as well as the procedures followed by the company to ensure that the board of directors responds to new challenges as they arise.

GREENERGY has a risk map that was approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting of 15 December 2020, revised at the Board of Directors' meeting of 20 September 2021 and updated by the Audit Committee on 18 July 2022. This determines the controls that the company is applying to mitigate risks and those that, where appropriate, it is considered advisable to apply. During the 2022 financial year, GREENERGY has designed most of the controls indicated in the risk map in such a way that it has response and supervision plans for the entity's risks, as well as specific procedures for this purpose. Each year, the Audit Committee reviews and updates the risk map and, if the changes are significant, proposes them to the Board of Directors.

The process of reviewing and updating the risk map involves a review by the heads of the various areas and the management team of emerging risks, their potential impact on the business and the mitigating measures to be implemented. This feedback is passed on to the management bodies through the updating of the risk map.

Internal Audit's functions include supervising the level of compliance with the remediation plans to be undertaken by the different risk-taking areas.

In addition, the Group has some ad hoc response plans:

1.- GREENERGY has duly identified the different macroeconomic risks of the countries in which it already operates and monitors them before making any substantial investment in them. Specifically, before approving an investment, whether the purchase of assets or the construction of a facility, it reconsiders the situation of the country, as well as the expected selling price of the energy it will produce. Before entering a new market (country), the company must carry out a study of the country's main risks. The company's entry into a new market requires the authorisation of the Board of Directors.

In relation to corporate governance risks, it is essential to ensure the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance system, comprising the Articles of Association, the Regulations of the Board of Directors and of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Corporate Policies (on the Selection and Remuneration of Directors, Risk Management and Control, Communication and Contacts with Shareholders, Institutional Investors and Proxy Advisors, as well as the Code of Conduct and the Protocol Regulating the Crime Prevention and Response System. To this end, the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee carries out an annual diagnosis of its Corporate Governance system in order to verify its degree of compliance and adaptation to new legislation, recommendations, standards and best practices in this area, and to systematically reinforce good corporate governance practices in its governing bodies.

The performance of the Board of Directors, its Directors and Delegated Committees, the Executive Chairman, the Coordinating Independent Director and the Secretary is subject to an annual evaluation process, coordinated by the Appointments, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, except in the case of the Executive Chairman, who is managed by the Coordinating Independent Director.

In order to mitigate exposure to the risk of crime, GREENERGY has a Crime Prevention Protocol applicable to all Group companies. This protocol has an organisation comprising two bodies: the Audit Committee and the Compliance Unit. Two phases are designed into it:

I.- A preventive phase of criminal conduct. This phase consists of identifying and updating the behaviours that entail a risk of committing crimes that may occur in GREENERGY, as well as planning and implementing controls to mitigate them. This has resulted in the preparation of a Crime and Risk Behaviour Prioritisation Catalogue, which, together with the estimate of the probability of occurrence, sets out the controls deemed appropriate to prevent the behaviour.

II.- A response phase. GREENERGY regulates the actions to be taken to find out whether the offence has actually taken place, or at least to gather the essential data to act in accordance with the law, as well as to preserve the evidence that may exist, and to minimise as far as possible the damage that may have been caused firstly to third parties and then to GREENERGY itself.

In addition, a Whistleblower Channel has been set up through the following link <https://greenergy.whistlelink.com/> so that any person in or outside the company can report, either confidentially or anonymously, any irregularities of potential transcendence, including, as expressly indicated, financial and accounting irregularities detected within the company, as well as breaches and presumably criminal acts or acts contrary to Grenergy's Code of Conduct.

F. INTERNAL CONTROL AND RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL REPORTING PROCESS (SCIIF)

Describe the mechanisms that make up the control and risk management systems in relation to the financial reporting process (ICFR) of your entity.

F.1. Entity's control environment.

Report, indicating its main characteristics of, at least:

F.1.1 Which bodies and/or functions are responsible for: (i) the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective ICFR; (ii) its implementation; and (iii) its oversight.

Board of Directors.

Insofar as the Board of Directors is responsible for all matters not attributed by law or by the Articles of Association to the General Meeting, it is competent for the supervision and control of the Group, and is therefore ultimately responsible for the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective ICFR.

The Board of Directors is entrusted with the management, administration and representation of the Company, delegating management in general to the CEO and the management team and concentrating its activity on the general supervisory function, which includes guiding the policy of GREENERGY, controlling the management bodies, evaluating the management of the executives, adopting the most relevant decisions for the Group and liaising with shareholders.

Audit Committee.

In accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association and the Regulations of the Board of Directors and as part of its financial and control functions, the Audit and Control Committee is responsible for supervising the preparation and integrity of the financial information relating to the Company and, where appropriate, its Group, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the appropriate definition of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting criteria.

In this regard, the Commission carries out the following functions, among others:

1.- In relation to internal control, risk management and internal audit systems:

- Supervise the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, internal audit and risk management systems, as well as discuss with the auditor any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected in the course of the audit, all of this without infringing its independence. To this end, it may submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors.

- Ensure the proper functioning of the risk control and management systems and, in particular, that all significant risks affecting the Company are adequately identified, managed and quantified;

- Actively participate in the development of risk strategy and major risk management decisions; and

- Ensure that risk management and control systems adequately mitigate risks within the framework of the policy defined by the Board of Directors.

- Supervise the internal audit unit, which oversees the proper functioning of the information and internal control systems and which reports functionally to the Audit Committee. The head of the unit responsible for the internal audit function shall present its annual work plan to the Audit Committee, inform it directly of any incidents arising during its implementation and submit an activities report to it at the end of each financial year.

- Ensuring the independence and effectiveness of the internal audit function, proposing, if deemed appropriate, the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of the head of the internal audit service, as well as proposing the budget of the internal audit service, approving its orientation and work plans, ensuring that its activity is mainly focused on the Company's relevant risks, receiving regular information on its activities and verifying that senior management takes into account the conclusions and recommendations of its reports;

- Establish and supervise a mechanism that allows employees to report confidentially and, if possible and appropriate, anonymously, potentially significant irregularities, especially financial and accounting irregularities, that they notice within the company;

- Monitor compliance with internal codes of conduct;
- Assess all aspects of the Company's non-financial risks, including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, environmental, political and reputational risks.

2.- In relation to the competences relating to the process of drawing up the regulated financial information:

- Supervise the process of preparation and presentation of the financial information and the management report, which shall include, where appropriate, the mandatory non-financial information, and submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors, aimed at safeguarding its integrity.
- Review compliance with regulatory requirements, the proper delimitation of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting principles.
- Reporting to the Board of Directors on the financial information that the Company is required to make public.

All members of the Audit Committee are independent directors. The Committee meets whenever convened by its Chairman and has held meetings at least quarterly. In financial year 2020, it met on ten (10) occasions.

Financial Management.

The Finance Department is responsible for the design, implementation and operation of the ICFR system. In this way, it keeps the system updated, monitoring its design and operation to ensure its effectiveness and efficiency, communicating and training those involved and maintaining a periodic report. Thus, its main tasks are:

- Ensure the integrity and internal consistency of the ICFR.
- Coordinate the assessment of financial reporting risks and their periodic review by updating the ICFR Risk Matrix.
- Collaborate in the classification of the deficiencies found as a result of the ICFR reviews (material weaknesses, significant deficiencies, non-significant deficiencies).
- Collaborate in the implementation of corrective actions arising from reviews of the ICFR.
- Develop and disseminate policies, guidelines and procedures related to the generation of financial information and ensure their correct application in the Group.
- Collaborate in the identification, design, documentation and implementation of the ICFR sub-cycles/processes in their area of responsibility, ensuring the achievement of the established objectives. Once the sub-cycle/process has been defined, communicate the changes in its operation with an impact on the financial information.
- Ensure that process documentation is updated and maintained.
- Collaborate with the Audit Committee in the development of its competencies, especially with regard to relations with the external auditor and supervision of the process of preparing the economic and financial information.

Internal Audit.

The competencies of the Internal Audit function include ensuring "the effective functioning of the Internal Control over Financial Reporting System (ICFR) established by the Company for the preparation and presentation of the Group's financial information". Its main functions are as follows:

- Execute tests and evaluations on the design and operational effectiveness of the System of Internal Control over Financial Reporting.
- Collaborate with the Audit Committee in the development of its competencies, in particular with regard to the supervision of the internal control system and the risk management and control process.
- Participate in the review of the internal control over financial reporting (ICFR) system established for the GREENERGY Group.

F.1.2 Whether the following elements exist, especially with regard to the financial reporting process:

- Departments and/or mechanisms in charge of: (i) the design and review of the organisational structure; (ii) clearly defining lines of responsibility and authority, with an adequate distribution of tasks and functions; and (iii) ensuring that there are sufficient procedures for their correct dissemination within the entity;

The organisational and authority structure within GREENERGY is designed and reviewed by the Board of Directors. Within this structure there is a specific department, the Finance Department, which is responsible for the preparation of financial information.

Senior Management together with the Human Resources Department (hereinafter, the "HRD" or "Human Resources Department", indistinctly) define the roles and responsibilities for each of the areas.

In particular, GREENERGY has clearly defined authority and responsibility for the preparation of financial information, which is the responsibility of the Finance Department. The structure of the Finance Department is determined by the Chief Financial Officer.

For both Spain and Chile, GREENERGY has an in-house accounting department. For the rest of the countries, GREENERGY has outsourced the accounting to a local or international firm, depending on the country.

GREENERGY's Financial Management is led by the Chief Financial Officer. The accounting and financial information area is responsible for updating and implementing the SCIIF.

-Code of conduct, approving body, degree of dissemination and instruction, principles and values included (indicating whether there are specific mentions of the recording of transactions and preparation of financial information), body responsible for analysing breaches and proposing corrective actions and sanctions:

At its meeting of 17 November 2017, the Board of Directors approved the Protocol Regulating the Crime Prevention and Response System, which includes the Code of Business Ethics. This Protocol has been reviewed during the financial year 2020, and a new version was approved by the Audit Committee at its meeting of 25 September 2020. A new review has taken place during the year 2022 with the support of an independent expert which will finalise in the next financial year 2023. In addition, the Board updated and revised the GREENERGY Code of Conduct and the Code of Conduct for Suppliers and Third Party Intermediaries at its meeting of 16 November 2022.

Consequently, GREENERGY's internal rules of conduct are mainly set out in the following rules or codes:

- Regulatory Protocol of the Crime Prevention and Response System.
- Code of Conduct.
- Code of conduct for suppliers and third party intermediaries.
- Travel, Travel and Representation Expenses Policy.

Regulatory Protocol of the Crime Prevention and Response System.

In order to mitigate exposure to the risk of crime, GREENERGY has a Protocol regulating the crime prevention and response system of the GREENERGY Group of Companies. The purpose of this is to establish and regulate the "Crime Prevention and Response System" (hereinafter the "Prevention and Response System" or simply the "System") in GREENERGY RENOVABLES S.A. and the Companies of its Group (hereinafter GREENERGY or the Group) through actions and controls, so as to mitigate the risk of the commission of such crimes or, in the event that they occur, to give due response to them.

The Protocol establishes the prohibition of a series of conducts and specifically, as far as the ICFR is concerned, the following:

- Misrepresenting in any way the annual accounts and/or other accounting or financial documents of the Company.
- Use, validate or post false accounting support.
- Take any action that prevents or obstructs the audit firm commissioned to carry out the statutory audit of the accounts or the staff of the tax authorities in any type of review requested.

Code of Conduct.

The Code of Conduct establishes the principles and values that must inspire and govern the development of the activities and relationships maintained in GREENERGY, as well as the conduct of each of the employees, managers and administrators. It establishes the principles of compliance with the law, respect for people and their rights, and integrity.

GREENERGY's business and professional activities shall at all times be carried out in compliance with the applicable legislation in force at all times and in all parts of the world. As an international company, it will always act in accordance with the regulations applicable in the countries in which it operates, adopting the necessary measures to do so, both in Spain and in the country in which it operates at any given time.

In addition, employees, managers and collaborators of any kind must act at all times, and above all other considerations, in accordance with integrity, honesty and professionalism, and always in accordance with the best interests of GREENERGY, avoiding conflicts of interest. GREENERGY is a company based on honesty and transparency.

Code of Conduct for Suppliers and Third Party Intermediaries.

At its meeting of 25 September 2020, the Board of Directors approved the Code of Conduct for GREENERGY suppliers, which was updated and revised by the Board itself on 16 November 2022. It contains the principles to be complied with by suppliers seeking to enter into agreements with GREENERGY. This Code is the beginning of a Supplier Management Policy that GREENERGY is formulating and which has already been approved, a Purchasing Policy in December 2021 and a Purchasing Procedure approved by the Management Committee last November 2022.

Travel, Travel and Representation Expenses Policy.

The purpose of this policy is to define the general criteria on the basis of which GREENERGY (hereinafter the Company) must regulate the expenses incurred by employees as a result of their professional activity in the Company. Secondly, the establishment of this process and regulation seeks to raise the awareness of all employees of the Company of the importance of cost control and the responsibility of each employee.

There are certain bodies that oversee the application of these codes. In particular, compliance with the Regulatory Protocol of the Crime Prevention and Response System and the Code of Business Ethics is monitored by the Regulatory Compliance Unit. Supervision falls to the Audit Committee in all cases.

According to Grenergy's Regulatory Framework approved on 16 November 2022 by the Board of Directors, each area that owns the internal regulations issued is obliged to implement and monitor the corresponding regulation.

As an additional control, the Grenergy Internal Regulations Implementation Control System has been established. The Control Manager is the collegiate Compliance Body that coordinates with the different heads of each area the implementation of the aforementioned internal regulations of Grenergy, evaluates the degree of implementation annually, and submits an annual report on the status of the issue to the Audit Committee.

- Whistle-blowing channel, which allows reporting to the audit committee of irregularities of a financial and accounting nature, in addition to possible breaches of the code of conduct and irregular activities in the organisation, informing, where appropriate, whether it is of a confidential nature and whether it allows anonymous communications, respecting the rights of the whistle-blower and the reported party.

Grenergy has established the following reporting channels:

- The Complaints Channel on the website.
- By email to the following address canald@grenergy.eu; and/or
- By post to the address Calle Rafael Botí, 26, 28003, Madrid, Spain

Access to whistleblowing channels shall be made fully confidential, allowing for the confidential submission of information and the absence of reprisals for workers for all good faith reports. An exception to this guarantee is made for those who act in bad faith with the intention of spreading false information or harming individuals. Appropriate legal or disciplinary action shall be taken against such unlawful conduct.

Upon receipt of a complaint, an investigation procedure is followed, after which the Compliance Unit will propose a resolution of the matter to the Disciplinary Committee and report on a "need to know" basis to the Audit Committee.

- Regular training and refresher programmes for staff involved in the preparation and review of financial information, as well as in the assessment of ICFR, covering at least accounting standards, auditing, internal control and risk management:

The heads of each department establish the training needs they estimate for their corresponding area. These needs are transmitted to the Human Resources Department, which is responsible for managing them, either with internal or external resources.

With respect to the staff involved in the preparation and review of financial information, as well as in the evaluation of the ICFR, the heads of these departments maintain a permanent and fluid communication with their external auditors and other accounting experts, who inform them promptly of new developments in accounting, risk management and internal control over financial reporting, and provide them with material and aids for updating.

If necessary, due to their importance or magnitude, specific training processes are designed on the subjects. Specifically, the Head of Consolidation has taken a course to obtain the CCA (Chartered Controller Analyst) professional certification through the GCCI (Global Chartered Controller Institute).

In addition, various compliance trainings are carried out to train GREENERGY employees on the subject and on the main compliance risks.

F.2. Risk assessment of financial information.

Report, at least, on:

F.2.1 What are the main characteristics of the risk identification process, including those of error or fraud, in terms of:

- If the process exists and is documented:

The Board of Directors is responsible for identifying the levels of risk it is willing to assume and must design and implement the risk control and risk management policy.

The risk identification process is one of the steps in the methodology for developing internal control over financial reporting and follows the COSO 2013 (Committee of Sponsoring of the Treadway Commissions) methodological framework.

The methodology is based on the analysis of the financial information in the different companies and corporate areas, to select the most relevant accounting headings and notes to the financial statements, in accordance with quantitative (materiality) and qualitative (business risk and visibility to third parties) criteria. The selected headings and notes are grouped into major processes in which the selected information is generated. The processes are analysed and a description is prepared for each of them, as a means of identifying potential risks of error in the financial information, in relation to attributes such as existence and occurrence, completeness, valuation, presentation, disclosure and comparability, and rights and obligations.

The identified risks are prioritised and the most relevant ones are selected by applying professional judgement on a series of indicators (existence of documented processes and controls, existence of systems that automate processes, whether there have been past occurrences, whether the process is known and mature or whether judgements are necessary to make estimates). Fraud risks are implicitly identified to the extent that they may generate material errors in the financial information. Once the most relevant risks have been selected, the necessary controls for their mitigation or management are selected and designed, and these controls are monitored and documented, as well as systematically reviewed.

The selected risks are reviewed at least annually as part of the assessment of the effectiveness of internal control carried out by those responsible.

- Whether the process covers the full range of financial reporting objectives (existence and occurrence; completeness; valuation; presentation, disclosure and comparability; and rights and obligations), whether it is updated and how often:

The processes in which financial information is generated are analysed on an annual basis to identify potential risks of error in relation to attributes such as existence and occurrence, completeness, valuation, presentation, disclosure and comparability, and rights and obligations.

- The existence of a process for identifying the scope of consolidation, taking into account, among other aspects, the possible existence of complex corporate structures, special purpose vehicles or special purpose vehicles:

GREENERGY maintains a Group Master of Companies. The scope of consolidation is reviewed and updated annually by the Finance Department. The scope of consolidation is subject to review by the external auditor.

- Whether the process takes into account the effects of other types of risks (operational, technological, financial, legal, fiscal, reputational, environmental, etc.) to the extent that they affect the financial statements:

The process of identification of risks of error in financial information takes into account all risks on financial information, also taking into account the effects of other types of risks (operational, technological, legal, reputational, environmental, etc.), insofar as they affect the financial statements. However, for the identification of financial reporting risks, no express identification of these other types of risks is made.

- Which governing body of the entity oversees the process:

The entire process of preparing and disseminating financial information is overseen by the Audit Committee, supported in this function by Internal Audit.

F.3. Control activities.

Report, indicating its main characteristics, whether it has at least:

- F.3.1 Procedures for the review and authorisation of financial information and the description of the ICFR, to be published in the securities markets, indicating those responsible, as well as documentation describing the fluctuations of activities and controls (including those relating to fraud risk) of the different types of transactions that may materially affect the financial statements, including the procedure for closing the accounts and the specific review of relevant judgements, estimates, assessments and projections

In accordance with the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Audit and Control Committee is responsible for supervising the process of preparing and presenting the financial information and the management report, which shall include, where appropriate, the mandatory non-financial information, and for submitting recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors aimed at safeguarding its integrity.

It is also the responsibility of the Audit Committee to inform the Board of Directors in advance of the financial information that the Company must periodically disclose.

The Finance Department also monitors the preparation of the accounting information of the various Group companies.

The Group has a procedure for reviewing financial information which establishes the process for preparing, processing, reviewing and authorising, by the persons responsible assigned, the financial information of the financial statements. It also establishes controls over judgements, estimates and valuations that could materially affect the financial statements. Each of the organisational structures is responsible for reviewing the reported financial information. The Finance Department performs analytical reviews of the financial information reported by these structures.

The Group also has an Accounting Policy Manual in which it establishes and discloses the accounting policies necessary to have a clear frame of reference for making accounting allocations, as well as for the Financial Statements and the Individual and Consolidated Annual Accounts, so that they show a true and fair view of the Financial Statements.

Grenergy has identified those processes with a risk of material impact on the preparation of financial information, which are represented in a risk and control matrix. This matrix describes the control activities and how they respond to the risks associated with the achievement of financial reporting reliability objectives, including fraud. It also details who is responsible for the execution of each control activity, and the frequency with which it is to be performed. Annually, this information is included in the internal control review process and internal audits to be carried out by the Internal Audit function.

The control structure defined within the model is determined on the basis of two categories:

- General controls
- Process controls

General Controls are the foundation on which the ICFR is based, with a direct impact on the organisational and process structure.

Process Controls are controls over operational processes that are more specific than general controls and are embedded in each of the main ICFR processes.

The process controls are distributed within the ICFR model in 8 processes:

- Accounting close, consolidation and reporting
- Active fijo
- Taxation
- Shopping
- Human Resources
- Treasury
- Sales
- Risk management

- F.3.2 Internal control policies and procedures on information systems (including access security, change control, system operation, business continuity and segregation of duties) that support the relevant processes of the entity in relation to the preparation and publication of financial information.

The IT Department is responsible for ensuring the operation of the information systems, in particular with regard to the financial reporting processes. The fundamental objectives are to establish technical and organisational measures for the systems, disseminate security policies and standards, minimise risks in the use of information technologies, avoid loss of sensitive information, and ensure greater integrity, veracity and confidentiality of the information generated. The current model has an IT process aimed at providing security over the information systems that support financial reporting.

- F.3.3 Internal control policies and procedures to monitor the management of outsourced activities, as well as those aspects of evaluation, calculation or valuation entrusted to independent experts, which may materially affect the ~~financials~~ financials

GREENERGY periodically reviews which activities performed by third parties are relevant to the financial reporting process or could indirectly affect its reliability.

Assessments, calculations or valuations entrusted to third parties that may materially affect the financial statements are subject to an internal review process to verify the correctness of the most significant assumptions and assumptions used and reviewed and contrasted by the external auditors in the context of the external audit of the main consolidated Greenergy Group subsidiaries.

Internationally recognised suppliers are used, ensuring that they are not affected by any event that could impair their independence.

F.4. Information and communication.

Report, indicating its main characteristics, whether it has at least:

- F.4.1 A specific function in charge of defining, keeping accounting policies up to date (accounting policy area or department) and resolving doubts or conflicts arising from their interpretation, maintaining fluid communication with those responsible for operations in the organisation, as well as an accounting policy manual that is updated and communicated to the units through which the entity operates.

The Head of Consolidation is responsible for the preparation, publication, implementation and updating of the Group's Accounting Policy Manual. He/she is assigned, among others, the following responsibilities in relation to the Group's accounting policies:

- Define the accounting treatment of the transactions constituting the Group's business.
- Define and update the Group's accounting practices.
- Resolving doubts and conflicts arising from the interpretation of accounting standards.
- Standardise the Group's accounting practices.

This manual covers the different business operations and their accounting treatment in accordance with the GREENERGY accounting framework.

The manual is updated at least annually. In this updating process, the Head of Consolidation incorporates all the new accounting developments that have been identified and that have been anticipated to those responsible for preparing the financial statements.

Once the Manual has been updated, it is sent to all accounting officers by e-mail.

F.4.2 Mechanisms for the capture and preparation of financial information with homogeneous formats, applicable and used by all units of the entity or group, which support the main financial statements and the notes, as well as the information detailed on the ICFR.

The Accounting Policy Manual enables the preparation, review and approval of financial information in standardised formats and serves as a guide for action.

The process of consolidation and preparation of the consolidated financial statements is carried out centrally by the Head of Consolidation.

The preparation of the consolidated financial information begins with the aggregation of the individual financial statements of each of the companies included in the scope of consolidation, for subsequent consolidation on the basis of the Group's accounting regulations.

The financial information reported to the CNMV is prepared on the basis of the consolidated financial statements obtained through the aforementioned process, as well as certain supplementary information reported by the subsidiaries, which is necessary for the preparation of the annual and/or half-yearly report.

In parallel, specific checks are carried out to validate the integrity of this information.

F.5. Monitoring of system performance.

Report, indicating its main characteristics, at least of:

F.5.1 The ICFR monitoring activities carried out by the audit committee and whether the entity has an internal audit function whose responsibilities include supporting the committee in its oversight of the internal control system, including ICFR. Likewise, disclose the scope of the ICFR assessment performed in the year and the procedure by which the assessor reports the results of the assessment, if the entity has an action plan detailing any corrective measures, and whether their impact on financial reporting has been considered.

Specifically, in relation to the activities of supervision of financial information, the Audit Committee has carried out, among others, the following activities during the 2022 financial year:

- It has reviewed the Group's consolidated annual accounts and the quarterly, half-yearly and annual financial information that the Board of Directors must provide to the markets and their supervisory bodies, monitoring compliance with legal requirements and the correct application of generally accepted accounting principles in their preparation.
- It has overseen the evaluation of the design and implementation of the ICFR model.
- It has reviewed with the external auditors the deficiencies in the internal control system observed, where applicable, in the performance of the various audit and review tasks. In turn, the external auditors have informed the Audit and Control Committee of the degree of implementation of the recommendations made in the course of their work.

The Colombian filiarities have commenced construction activity and some energy sales activity during the 2022 financial year and therefore the ICFR assessment of this filial has not been included in the scope of the ICFR model for the current financial year.

The internal audit function includes, within its annual Internal Audit Plan, the supervision of GREENERGY's ICFR. This annual plan is approved by the Audit Committee and is used as the basis for regular reporting on Internal Audit activities.

F.5.2 Whether it has a discussion procedure whereby the auditor (in accordance with the provisions of the AAS), the internal audit function and other experts can communicate to senior management and the audit committee or directors of the entity significant internal control weaknesses identified during the review process of the annual accounts, or other significant weaknesses in internal control that have been entrusted to them. It shall also report on whether it has an action plan that seeks to correct or mitigate the weaknesses observed.

The external auditor meets periodically with the Audit Committee and informs it of the internal control weaknesses identified in the reviews carried out, as well as the degree of progress of the action plans established for their mitigation.

At its meetings, the Audit Committee discusses any control weaknesses that may affect the financial statements, requesting, where appropriate, the necessary information from the affected areas in order to assess the effects that may have on the financial statements.

Article 30 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors provides that the Audit Committee's duties are to "supervise the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, internal audit and risk management systems, as well as to discuss with the auditor any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected in the course of the audit, without infringing its independence. To this end, it may submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors".

Furthermore, the Audit Committee shall ensure, in accordance with article 10 of the Board Regulations, that the Board of Directors presents the accounts to the General Shareholders' Meeting without limitations or qualifications in the audit report. In exceptional cases where qualifications exist, the Chairman of the Audit Committee and, exceptionally, the auditors shall clearly explain to the shareholders the content and scope of such limitations or qualifications.

In order to comply with the provisions of the aforementioned article 10, at the meetings held between the Audit Committee and the external auditors, any existing discussions or differences of opinion are anticipated. In turn, the external auditor reports, where appropriate, on the main aspects of internal control improvement identified as a result of its work. In addition, the Finance Department reports on the degree of implementation of the corresponding action plans established to correct or mitigate the aspects identified.

In addition, the Audit Committee meets with the auditors of the individual and consolidated accounts to review the Group's annual accounts and certain quarterly and half-yearly financial information that the Board of Directors must provide to the markets and their supervisory bodies, ensuring compliance with legal requirements and the correct application of generally accepted accounting principles.

During the financial year 2022, the external auditor has met with the Audit Committee in four (4) sessions.

F.6. Other relevant information.

F.7. External auditor's report.

Report by:

F.7.1 Whether the ICFR information submitted to the markets has been reviewed by the external auditor, in which case the entity should include the relevant report as an annex. If not, it should disclose its reasons.

The Group has submitted its ICFR to a voluntary review. These reviews have been carried out by the auditor of the Grenergy Group's accounts. The report for the 2022 financial year is attached as Annex 1.

G. DEGREE TO WHICH CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RECOMMENDATIONS ARE FOLLOWED

Indicate the company's degree of compliance with the recommendations of the Good Governance Code of Listed Companies.

In the event that a recommendation is not followed or is followed in part, a detailed explanation of the reasons should be included so that shareholders, investors and the market in general have sufficient information to assess the company's actions. General explanations will not be acceptable.

1. The articles of association of listed companies should not limit the maximum number of votes that may be cast by a single shareholder, nor contain other restrictions that make it difficult to take control of the company by acquiring its shares on the market.

2. That, when the listed company is controlled, within the meaning of Article 42 of the Commercial Code, by another entity, whether listed or not, and has, directly or through its subsidiaries, business relations with that entity or any of its subsidiaries (other than those of the listed company) or carries out activities related to those of any of them, it should publicly disclose precisely the following:

- a) The respective areas of activity and any business relationships between, on the one hand, the listed company or its subsidiaries and, on the other hand, the parent company or its subsidiaries.
- b) The mechanisms foreseen to resolve possible conflicts of interest that may arise.

additional motivation for their performance through remuneration linked to the delivery of shares or financial instruments referenced to their value.

62. Once the shares, options or financial instruments corresponding to the remuneration systems have been allocated, executive directors may not transfer ownership or exercise them until a period of at least three years has elapsed.

An exception is made where the director maintains, at the time of the transfer or exercise, a net economic exposure to changes in the share price of a market value equivalent to an amount of at least twice his annual fixed remuneration through the ownership of shares, options or other financial instruments.

The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director needs to dispose of in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition or, subject to the favourable opinion of the appointments and remuneration committee, to meet extraordinary situations that so require.

It is not provided that it will only be paid when the Company has been able to verify that the Director has met the previously established performance criteria. The reason that the Company has not provided for the condition that it will only be paid once it has been ascertained that the Director has met the previously established performance criteria is generally due to the relatively low fixed and variable remuneration of Directors which does not make it necessary to take this precaution.
